Men's House Councils

The Men's House Council consists of student elected representatives from all men's dormitories. It governs activities of the residence halls and provides the dorm system with rules for better living conditions. The House Council has also been helpful as a coordinating body between the administration and the student. It has established a system of dormitory self government and an atmosphere of fellowship in dormitory. The Council sponsors residence hall improvements and plans a dorm party at Christmas.

Going out to dinner every month, especially when the bill is footed by the University, is not really hard work. But for the members of Dinner Club, much hard work had to go before, as membership require a 3.2 cumulative grade point average for juniors and a 3.0 for seniors. The organization was set up to honor those students who achieve this.

After dinner, the group discusses current issue and problems, usually with a special guest. Among those who talked with the group this year was President Peterson.

Ambassadors

Getting to know a college as it really is can best be done by talking with students who go there. This is the whole idea behind the student Ambassadors. When high school students come to visit the University, they are shown around by an Ambassador who spends some time walking, talking, and generally letting him know what it's like to be a Spartan.

In addition to this, the Ambassadors also took the University home with them—showing slides of the campus and giving parties for prospectives students over the holidays. They also accompanied admissions counselor on trips to high schools to give them a student's eye view.

The group was advised by Mr. Bunting and Mr. Loll and was under the leadership of president Tom Willoughby.

High Court is one of the most important judicial bodies at the university. It has original jurisdiction over student regulations involving college regulations and appellate jurisdiction over decisions of the primary courts. The members of High Court are students chosen by the administration whose characters are particularly honest, sincere, and impartial.

Women's Primary Court

The Women's Primary Court is the branch of the judicial system responsible for the trial of all women's cases at the University. It has original jurisdiction over all cases arising from the rules governing the women's residence halls. The decision of the Primary Court is final unless the defendant appeals her case to the High Court.

The injury-riddled Spartans had an extremely disappointing year in 1970, but with the talent and veterans returning next year, they should be close to the top of the conference, if not on the top.

The year opened with a 17—14 loss to St. Procopius, a team which went on to lose only one game in the season. The next game, the conference opener, was won by the Spartans, 14—7, over a surprisingly tough Buena Vista team. With their backs to the wall, the Spartan defense saved the game with a tremendous goal line stand.

The next week, the Spartans travelled to Decorah, Iowa to face the champions to be of the Iowa conference, Luther College. After a disappointing first half, when the Norsemen scored 28 points, the Dubuque team came out and held them scoreless in the second half, while scoring 7 points, and being stopped on three more occasions inside the Norse twenty yard line.

The following week, the Upper Iowa Peacocks came to Dubuque only to be defeated 21—19. The Spartan defense again came through with a blocked field goal in the final minutes of the game. Two of the three scores were set up by long passes from Jon Zoffka to Bruce Minemier.

At Oskaloosa the next week, the Spartans faced as tough and physical a team as they went up against all year, the nationally ranked William Penn Statesmen. This was where the injury problems started for the Spartans, with the losses of Jerry Burke, offensive back; Roger Rohwedder, offensive tackle, and quarterback, Jon Zoffka was on the injured list for three weeks after. The outcome of the game was William Penn 41 Dubuque 6.

At Homecoming, the Spartans lost a 13—12 heart-breaker to the Wartburg Knights. In this game, Dick Mullen, starting offensive guard was lost for the season with a broken ankle.

From there, an injury weakened Spartan team, with a rebuilt offensive unit travelled to Indianola, Iowa to face another nationally ranked team, still in contention for the conference championship, the Simpson Redmen. Again the Spartans suffered a setback on the muddy Simpson field with Redmen quarterback Joe Blake leading his team to a 28—0 victory over the hapless Blue Machine.

The last home game of the season was with the Central Dutchmen, one of the toughest defensive clubs in the conference, second only to Luther, led by All-American defensive end Vern DenHerder. The Spartans fought hard the first half and went to the locker room trailing 13—7. In the second half, the inspired Dutchmen team went on to defeat the Spartans 40—7, scoring 20 points in the final five minutes of the contest. Offensive tackle, Bob Fechisin was sidelined for the remaining game with St. Norbert, along with All-Conference stand-out, Steve Nash, who was out with a head injury. St. Norberts won the game 62—0, capping off the season for the injured Blue Machine.

Bright spots in the season included the performance of offensive back Earl Crutchfield, who turned in at least three long touchdown runs, including the longest run in the conference, an 80 yard touchdown run against William Penn.

The Spartans also found a quarterback in Jon Zoffka, who proved he could move the team against Luther, the strongest defensive club in the conference.

Gary Giesler also turned in brilliant performances with strong, hard running at the fullback positon.

Looking to next year, the Spartans have all but the eight graduating seniors back, and things could be looking up for the University of Dubuque gridders. Next year could very well be the year of the "Big Blue Machine".

The Spartan Harriers finished out their dual season with a record of 5—3 but, this is no indication of the potential that the team possessed. Loras, Platteville, and Wartburg were the three teams to hand Dubuque its losses and all with the strongest teams each has had in years.

Running this year with only one Senior on the team, Captain Dave Horstmann, the team revealed a young and strong nucleus for next year. Sophomores Tom Cummings and Bill Dodd, and Freshman Fred Schafer, George Eklund, Clay Schafer and Dan Hayes, will supply the impetus for the next years squad. Although the squad will be losing a tremendous asset with the graduation of Dave Horstmann, they are hopeful in acquiring someone next year with equal or better talent to aid them in their pursuit of the Conference Championship.

The Spartan thin clads participated in four major meets during the season, three invitationals and Conference. Progressing in the standings, as the season went on the harriers placed ninth in the Wheaton Invitational, sixth in the Les Duke Invitational, and second in the Coe Invitational. Although the team didn't produce an exceptional runner, they had to rely mostly upon their depth and balance.

This depth and balance was brought out in the Conference meet where the harriers placed ninth, eleventh, twelfth, sixteenth and twenty-first for a total of sixty-nine points. The Spartans finished third in the meet behind Wartburg and Luther, respectively.

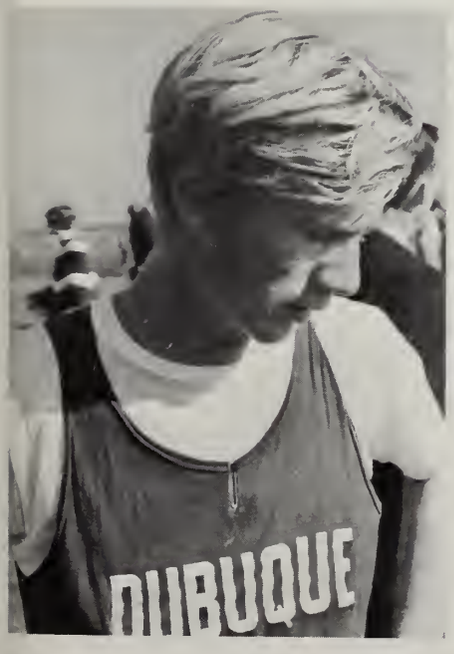

The Spartans have high hopes for next year with its young nucleus. With the acquisition of some spirited talent to round-out the team, the Harriers may prove to be very powerful in conference competition.

Basketball

FRONT ROW: Denny Countryman, Jim Wall, Bill Redmond, Jim Finnegan, Pat Melloy. BACK ROW: Ken Sipiora, Jim West, Bob Vossel, Coach Davison, Gary Peckham, Jon West, Steve Foley.

The 1970-71 UD basketball squad is having another successful season. Currently, the Spartans are tied for first place with a 4—2 record and an 8—7 record over-all. Coach Davison has only two lettermen back from last year's squad: Steve Foley, and Gary Peckham. However, juniors and sophomores have filled the gaps very well. Junior Steve Foley, and Senior Captain Gary Peckham have been helped out by two transfer students: juniors Pat Melloy and Bill Redmond. Both have been the leading scorers in games up to date. Melloy is currently fourth in the Iowa Conference scoring race with a 19.6 average and Redmond sports a 13.9 average. Right behind Redmond is sophomore Jim West, who carries a 13.5 average. Also contributing greatly to the team have been Ken "Sip" Sipiora, Bob Vossel, Denny Countrymen and Jon West.

The Spartans started out the season in great fashion with convincing victories over North Park (79—68) and Northeastern (108—73). Next, the handscourt crowd lost a close one to conference co-leader, Upper Iowa by an 83—82 count and a squeaker to St. Ambrose, 72—71. In the Christmas Tourney, the Spartans scored a convincing victory over Winona State, 88—60, but lost in the championship game to a tough Ball State, 95—70. In conference action, the Spartans rolled over Luther, 87—72, and last year's Iowa conference champions, Wartburg, by 75—69. The team also defeated Simpson (73—71) and Buena Vista (65—61) before losing to Briar Cliff, 96—79, in a non-conference game. Platteville was the next Spartan victim, losing a close one to the Spartans in overtime, 86—84 as Pat Melloy stole the ball and went in for the lay-up and Bill "Bogey" Redmond added two free throws for the clincher. The next week, the Spartans went to Upper Iowa where they lost 85—76.

As the Key goes to press, the Spartans are in a four way tie for first place with Upper Iowa, William Penn, and Wartburg. With a young team (only one senior), the Spartans will be near the top and are looking for greater things to come next year.

Wrestling

George Coe, Steve Burns, Bill Whitehead, Ed Hendrix, Paul Denesha, Dan Hayes, Chuck Knutsen. Head Coach Don Hayes, George Ludwig, Mike Reid, Jim Clark, Jim Furland, Mark Smith, Assistant Coach Struck.

The 1970-71 Dubuque wrestling team has had another successful season. Up to date, the Spartans have rolled up an impressive 5—2 record, plus first in the Dubuque Tourney, and a respectful showing at the MacMurray Invitational.

Head Coach Don Hayes, his first year at the helm, had five returning letterman from last year's quad. They are: Tri-Captains Bill Whitehead, Ed Hendrix, and Mike Reid, plus Jim Furland and Chuck Knutsen.

Whitehead, a 126 pound senior, has thus far rolled up a season's record of 11—2, plus a first in the Dubuque Tourney. His record at the U of D has been 61—11—1. Hendrix, record of 42—13. Reid, a 190 pound senior, has a record of 12—1, a first at the Dubuque Tourney, and a total record of 60—11—1. Furland, a 158 pound sophomore, has compiled a season's record of 8—3—2 and a first at the MacMurray Invitational. Knutsen a 167 pound junior, has a record of 11—2, a first at the Dubuque Tourney, and a three year record of 45—8.

Other Spartan Performers are: 118 pound Freshman Steve Burns (74—1); Paul Denesha, a 150 pound junior (10—2); Jim Clark, a 177 pound freshman (8—5), and Senior Heavyweight George Ludwig (3—10).

The Spartan grapplers should make a strong showing in this Iowa Conference Tournament. They will be wrestling against tough teams as Upper Iowa (ranked third in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics), Luther, and Wartburg.

Spring Sports

Due to the fact that last year's Key came out early, we have very few pictures of spring sports. These athletes deserve as much recognition as anyone else. Once again the Key goes to press early and it is impossible to have this year's spring sports in the Key. But we would like to wish the track, golf, tennis, and baseball teams good luck. The following are a few statistics from the 1970 season.

Communication. Between the generations, between races, and between administration, faculty, and students.

Communication—the key to success. The key to Dr. Peterson's administration.

Taking over the job of University President this year was no easy task. In the midst of dissatisfaction and conflict, Dr. Peterson came to UD. He came with a purpose—to unlock the doors of communication—and he did just that.

Dr. Peterson listened—to students, to faculty, and to administration. And more than that, he did something about it. Through this, the goals of these three groups became more congruent—to help the college work in closer conjunction with the community, and most important, to have a University which strives to best serve the students.

Prior to coming to UD, Dr. Peterson taught in four different colleges and universities. He came most recently from Lawrence University in Appleton, Wisconsin.

May 1971 . . .
the creaking,
glittering,
dizzy
merry-go-round
grinds to a halt.
Cornflower blue
and snowy white
horses
stop—
some in mid-air,
caught in a joyous leap,
or on the way
down
from the pinnacle.
Others never got off the ground,
but sat
motionless—
spun around with all the rest.
The tinkling song
which played over and over is cut off.
Stillness
For only a moment.
Some of the passengers
climb off—
bursting forth
to run
laughing and yelling
to ride the roller coaster.
Or perhaps a few of them
pause
to look around,
to think—
deciding where to go.
There are so many directions to choose from.
And some just stand
gazing sadly
at the stationary merry-go-round, remembering the happy times
and forgetting the sad.
Thinking of the friends who are still on for another ride.
And wanting to go back, yet wanting to go on.

The Children of the Carnival . . .

Bursting
through the open gate
they came—
laughing,
pushing,
skipping—
breathless, and eager to leave behind
the kiddie rides.
The small, cozy, fenced-in play area
was abandoned,
and with it
the miniature
planes,
and cars,
and boats
that went around and around—never going anywhere.
But the Midway
lie ahead—
sparkling in the sunlight.
Cornflower blue
and snowy white
horses
danced
before their eyes
and the lively music
beckoned.
A new adventure—
it promised
to be better than what
had gone before.
Jumping on the
merry-go-round,
they laughed
and called to each other.
The machinery started up,
and they were spun
around and around.
A little confused,
but overflowing
with enthusiasm
they joined in
with the others—
and became
all mixed-up
and spread out
like chocolate chips stirred into the cookie dough.

As
the platform
slowly begins to turn
again,
they stand
braced against candy cane striped
poles.
Joking,
talking,
glad to be back,
they laugh
at past
uncertainties
and mistakes—
once more
feeling secure.
This is home now.
Many
old friends
who rode with them
last time
are gone—
leaving
before their ride was over.
Of those who stayed
some have already climbed up—
having chosen
the horse
which will serve them.
Some
still wander—
touching
a blue, polka-dot mare
for a moment,
gaining support
against the increased momentum
of the
merry-go-round.
Turning,
they may stand
by a striped horse,
or even sit
a little while
on a pure white steed
just to see
how it feels.
Finally,
each finds
his place
and sits—
still enthused,
and determined,
and loyal—
still reaching for gold rings.

Extending
downward
a steady hand
for the chubby fingers
of little ones
to grasp,
they sit
secure,
each one
high
on his own horse.
Good horses—
familiar friends—
who carried them
for so long through
trails,
and disappointment,
and success.
Bright blue
has faded
to dove gray
and
once snowy-white
is clouded
with a film of dust.
Hoofs
which earlier
pranced
impatiently
and frolicked
as they spun,
now are motionless.
And the riders
are hushed—
calmly
waiting.
Past
the time
of bubbling over
and not yet aware of the nearness
of the time of departure.

Editor's Notes

I sincerely hope that the '71 KEY meets the expectations of you, the student body of the University of Dubuque, for you ARE the book and the book is for YOU. It is to YOU we dedicate the 1971 KEY. As I took on the job of Editor of the KEY, I really wasn't sure that I could get the job done.

However, these were foolish thoughts. For when one has an assistant editor like Kathy Kahlenberg who was always there when I needed moral support or help, or both, which was often the case, one has absolutely nothing to worry about.

So many times we found ourselves wondering if it was all worth it, but I really feel that every minute of this experience will be invaluable to myself and all of us that worked on this yearbook. For, an annual is something that everyone looks at in future years as a remembrance of good times, bad times, and in a sense, a time of growing.

I wish especially to acknowledge Pris Olsen, Amy Richardson, and Pat Reis for giving of themselves and their time whenever it was asked of them. These people gave of their time to the production of this book, knowing they would receive nothing in return except my sincere and hearty appreciation, and the feeling one has when one completes a job well done. Our special thanks go out to Mr. Bill Bicksler, who pulled us through at the end with his fine photography. This was all done in his spare time. Fine job, Bill.

Thanks also have to go out to Mr. Fred Stoeker, our representative from the American Yearbook Company, who went to bat for us when we were somewhat late in meeting some of our deadlines.

We, the staff, wish to express our regrets that the spring events, and spring sports of 1971 could not be included in this edition of the KEY, but since the book was finished in the middle of February, this was naturally quite impossible.

Sincerely,

Tim Allyn

KEY Editor
